FBI Victim Assistance Services

If you were injured in or witnessed the shooting at the Route 91 Harvest Music Festival in Las Vegas, you may be eligible for certain services and rights, such as special funding to provide emergency assistance, crime victims compensation, and counseling.

The FBI has collected and cataloged thousands of belongings left behind at the concert venue. All requests for belongings lost at the festival site are being processed through the FBI's Victim Services Division website and the online questionnaire located at: www.fbi.gov/lvmusicfestivalshooting.

Event attendees also can email inquiries to the FBI at: LVFestivalAssist@fbi.gov

If you lost a cell phone, please text a message with your full name to your lost cell phone. Please include as much detail about your lost items as possible. They will work with individuals to get your identified items back to you as soon as possible.
